Every Saturday, Sunday, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Queen's Birthday, Labour Day, and Thanksgiving Day shall be a holiday.

ARTICLE 3.

There shall be two vacations in each year. The Summer vacation shall extend from the last Saturday in June to the second Sunday in August; and the Winter vacation shall continue for two weeks preceding the first Monday in January after New-Year's Day.

NOTE.—Trustees may extend the Summer vacation to the first Sunday in September, provided that the school has been kept open the number of school-days in July equal to the number of school-days occurring between the second Sunday in August and the first Sunday in September.

ARTICLE 4.

Clause 1.—Teachers on the permanent staff at the close of the school-year (June 30th), who have been employed for more than half of the prescribed teaching days in the year, shall be paid their usual salaries for July.

Clause 2.—Teachers on the permanent staff at the close of the school-year (June 30th), who have not been employed for more than half of the prescribed teaching days in the year, shall be paid salary for July, provided they continue teaching during August and September following the Summer vacation.

Clause 3.—When a school is closed for one or more of the prescribed teaching days in a month without authority having been first obtained from the Council of Public Instruction, salary will not be paid to the teacher for the time that the school is closed.

NOTE.—In case of the prevalence of an epidemic, illness of teacher, or other cause equally satisfactory to the Council of Public Instruction, Trustees may forthwith temporarily close the school, but immediate notification must be given the Department, with the reason therefor.

ARTICLE 5.

Teachers, during temporary absence from duty, must provide substitutes satisfactory to the Board of Trustees, and must satisfy the claims of such substitutes for services rendered.

A substitute cannot serve for a longer period than ten consecutive teaching days in the school-year, except in the event of sickness of teacher.

ARTICLE 6.

It shall be the duty of every teacher of a public school—

Clause 1.—In accordance with rules and regulations herein contained, to teach diligently and faithfully all the branches required to be taught in the school.

Clause 2.—To keep the school registers with care, and to call the roll previously to beginning the regular school work; in graded schools, to call the roll each morning and each afternoon.

Clause 3.—To inquire into the cause and record all cases of tardiness and absence of pupils.

Clause 4.—To make a daily record of the work of each pupil, and to send to each pupil's parent or guardian a monthly report, based on this record, stating the number of times he was absent, the number of times he was late, his deportment, his progress in each branch of study, and his rank in his class.

NOTE.—By making a daily record of the work of each pupil is meant the keeping of an authentic register of the work of each pupil, so that at the end of the month the teacher will be able to send to the parent or guardian an intelligent and proper report on the deportment and progress of each pupil.

Clause 5.—To be present in the school-room at least fifteen minutes in the morning, and five minutes in the afternoon, before the time prescribed for commencing school; to maintain a regular supervision of the pupils in the play-ground; to observe punctually the hours for opening and closing school, and after close of school not to leave the school-grounds until every pupil has departed, and not to allow recesses to exceed the specified time.

Clause 6.—To keep a visitors' book (which the Trustees shall provide) and enter therein the visits made to his school, and, if deemed advisable, to present such book to such visitor, and request him to make therein any remarks suggested by his visit.

Clause 7.—To receive visitors courteously.

Clause 8.—At all times to give to the Superintendent, Inspectors, and Trustees, when desired by them, access to the registers and visitors' book appertaining to the school, and upon his leaving the school to deliver up the same to the order of the Trustees.

Clause 9.—On the last day of each half-year to hold a public examination of his school, notice of which shall be given to the Trustees, and to the parents through the pupils.

NOTE.—In the Cities of Nanaimo, New Westminster, Vancouver and Victoria, the examinations demanded by Statute must be held during the last week of each session, on day or days fixed by the Board of Trustees.

Each teacher in the above City Schools shall be required to attend public examinations held after the closing of his school.

NOTE.—By a public examination of a school is meant the examining orally of classes in at least four or more of the subjects of study taught in the school-room. If the teacher desires to vary the exercises of the day with recitations, singing, calisthenics or other work in which instruction has been given, there cannot be any valid objection raised unless the time occupied by these last subjects directly interferes with the time which should be devoted to the required viva voce examination.

The public examination day should be regarded as affording the teacher the opportunity of showing to the Trustees, parents and other visitors, not only the advancement made by the pupils in different subjects of study, but of presenting to them the methods used to secure this progress. If the teacher desires, he may call upon visitors to assist him in examining classes, but to do so must be regarded as a voluntary act on his part.

Clause 10.—To maintain proper order and discipline in his school, according to the authorized forms and regulations.

Clause 11.—To daily inspect the yards and out-houses, and to report their condition to the Trustees when deemed necessary, and to see that the school-house and premises are locked at all proper times, and to exercise vigilance over the school property, the buildings, out-houses, fences, apparatus, books, &c., so that they may not receive unnecessary injury, and to give prompt notice in writing to the Secretary of the Trustees of any such injury.

Clause 12.—To keep in a conspicuous place in the school-room a time-table showing the order of exercises for each day in the week, and the time devoted to each subject per day.

Clause 13.—Not to be absent from school, unless in case of sickness, in which case the absence is to be immediately reported to the Secretary of the Board of Trustees.

N. B.—All absences, with reasons for the same, shall be reported monthly to the Superintendent of Education.

Clause 14.—In schools where more than one teacher is employed, to attend all meetings of the teachers called by the principal.

Clause 15.—To render every assistance required of him by the Superintendent of Education or Inspectors, in promoting, examining or classifying pupils.

Clause 16.—To verify by affidavit, before any Justice of the Peace, the correctness of such returns as the Superintendent of Education may, from time to time, require to be so verified.

NOTE.—In order to secure annual returns as nearly correct as possible from schools in which more than one teacher is employed, special attention is called to the necessity of the careful observance of the following points:—

1. The List of Children returned should contain the names of all pupils (arranged alphabetically) who received instruction in each division during the school-year. A cross (X) should be placed before the names of the pupils who were promoted at the Christmas Examination, or who are known to be reckoned as pupils by any other teacher.

2. In making out the Annual Report, the teacher should insert under "Total number of pupils of all ages who attended the school during the year" (Table A), the number of pupils who have been attendants in his division only, that is, who are not reckoned as pupils by any other teacher. Thus in a Graded School of eight divisions the total number of pupils enrolled, as given in Annual Reports of these eight divisions, will be the total number of pupils who have attended the school during the school-year. In this way the reckoning of duplicate enrolments will be avoided. The object aimed at is that the reports of the school give a correct statement as to the whole number of pupils who have attended the school during the school-year. In any case of doubt consultation with other teachers will in all probability lead to accuracy.

Clause 17.—To furnish to the Superintendent monthly, or when desired, any information which it may be in his power to give respecting anything connected with the operation of his school, or in anywise affecting its interest or character.

Clause 18.—Not to detain any pupil in school during the hour's intermission at noon, and, except in extreme cases, to avoid detention after hours.

Clause 19.—To strictly obey the rules and regulations prescribed.

Clause 20.—To give at least thirty days' notice to the Trustees of his intention of resigning.

Clause 21.—To make himself familiar with the School Act.

ARTICLE 7.

Every teacher shall practise such discipline as may be exercised by a kind, firm and judicious parent in his family, avoiding corporal punishment, except when it shall appear to him to be imperatively necessary, and then a record of the offence and the punishment shall be made in a register used for the purpose, which records shall be open to inspection by the Superintendent of Education, the Inspectors, and the Trustees.

ARTICLE 8.

For gross misconduct, or a violent or wilful opposition to authority, the teacher may suspend a pupil from attending school for a specified period, not to exceed one week, forthwith informing the parent or guardian of the fact and the reason thereof.

ARTICLE 9.

When the example of any pupil is very injurious, and no prospect of reformation is apparent, it shall be the duty of the teacher, with the approval of the Trustees, to expel such pupil from the school; but any pupil thus expelled, who shall express to the teacher his regret for such a course of conduct, as openly and explicitly as the case may require, shall, with the permission of the Trustees and teacher, be readmitted to the school.

ARTICLE 10.

The principal of a school shall have a responsible supervision over the timetables, exercises, methods, and general discipline pursued in all its lower grades, and shall, on or before the 15th day of July in each year, send to the Superintendent of Education a report of the condition and progress of the school, with any suggestions he may deem expedient respecting its requirements.

NOTE.—In order to secure greater uniformity in the management of Graded Schools, the following additional regulations have been prescribed by the Council of Public Instruction :—

The Principal shall prepare the Limit Table for each division of his school, and must forward a copy of the same to the Education Department for approval.

Semi-annual or annual written examinations for making promotions shall be held in the different divisions of each Graded School.

The Principal shall prepare the questions for these examinations, and shall fix the time of holding the same, but the promotion lists must be read on the date on which each public examination of the school is held.

As it is not deemed proper to place too great reliance upon a single written examination, the Principal shall consult the assistant teacher of each division in preparing the promotion list. The assistant's recommendation, based upon record kept as to progress and standing of pupils claimed to be worthy of promotion, should be accorded proper consideration.

A copy of all questions set for each promotion examination, together with a statement of the results of the examination of each division (on blanks supplied by the Department for that purpose), must forthwith be forwarded to the Education Department.

ARTICLE 11.

It shall be the duty of the principal of every public school to convene, at least once a month, a meeting of his assistants for conference on all matters affecting the proper management of each division, with a view to securing not only uniformity in discipline and instruction, but also the adoption of the best approved methods. A record shall be kept of the proceedings had at each meeting, which record shall be open to the inspection of the Superintendent of Education, the Inspectors, and the Board of Trustees. The principal must report to the Trustees the names of assistants who fail to attend each meeting.

ARTICLE 12.

Assistant teachers shall give the pupils under their charge every assistance necessary in preparing lessons and acquiring a knowledge of the subjects comprised in their respective "limits," and shall aim at rendering study pleasant as well as profitable. They shall assist at all examinations for promotions, in the manner prescribed by the principal, and shall enforce such discipline in assembling and dismissing pupils as is required of them by the principal.

ARTICLE 13.

Pupils enrolled in city schools shall not be permitted to change from one school to another during the school-year, except by promotion or on account of change of residence.

ARTICLE 14.

No person shall be admitted into, or be allowed to continue in, any school as a pupil, if he be afflicted with, or have been exposed to, any contagious disease, until all danger of contagion shall have passed away, as certified in writing by a medical man, or other authority satisfactory to the teacher.

ARTICLE 15.

Any school property that may be wilfully injured or destroyed by any pupil shall be made good forthwith by his parent or guardian.

ARTICLE 16.

The highest morality shall be inculcated, but no religious dogma nor creed shall be taught. The Lord's Prayer may be used in opening or closing the school.

ARTICLE 17.

It is required of each and every pupil of a Public School—

- Clause 1.*—That he come to school clean and tidy in his person and clothes ; that he avoid idleness, profanity, falsehood, deceit, quarrelling and fighting ; that he be kind and courteous to his fellows, obedient to his instructors, diligent in his studies, and that he conform to the rules of the school.
- Clause 2.*—That he present to the teacher an excuse from his parent or guardian for tardiness or absence from school.
- Clause 3.*—That he be present at each examination of his school, or present a satisfactory excuse for absence ; in High and Graded Schools, in case of absence after promotion examination has been held, he shall forfeit standing obtained at such examination unless such absence was caused by sickness or other equally satisfactory reason.
- Clause 4.*—That he do not depart without the teacher's consent, before the time appointed for closing the school.
- Clause 5.*—That he be amenable to the teacher for any misconduct on the school premises, or in going to and returning from school.
- Clause 6.*—That he come to school with the prescribed text-books and school requisites ; but in case of his inability to comply with this rule the teacher in a rural district may, under special circumstances, supply the necessary books free of cost ; but authority to supply the same must be first obtained from the Education Office.

XIV.—A candidate who fails to obtain the Certificate written for shall not be awarded marks for answers to the papers set in subjects peculiar to that class and grade.

XV.—A candidate at the Teachers' Examination may claim to have his papers re-read on the following conditions:—

1. The appeal or claim must be in the hands of the Minister of Education within twenty days after the publication of the results of the examination in the British Columbia Gazette.

2. The ground of the appeal must be specifically stated.

3. The examiners shall dispose of all appeals with as little delay as possible, and no appeal shall be subsequently entertained on any ground whatever.

4. A deposit of $5 must be made with the Department, which deposit will be returned to the candidate if his appeal or claim is sustained.

Excerpt from the Twenty-first Annual School Report.

Section 69 of the Public School Act reads as follows:—

“No certificate shall be given to any person as a Teacher who does not furnish satisfactory proof of good moral character, and satisfy the Board of Examiners that he or she is a fit and proper person to be granted a certificate.”

It is evident from the foregoing that the Legislature considers the moral fitness of the candidate to be of paramount importance.

The examiners must be satisfied that the applicant is a fit and proper person for the position of teacher before they can deem him eligible to be admitted to the examination, or to be granted a certificate. Every person sending in notification of his intention to be a candidate at the Teachers' Examination must forward credentials of character satisfactory to the Board of Examiners. These testimonials should be of late date, and should bear the signatures of those in responsible positions, such as clergymen, magistrates, or trustees.

COURSES OF STUDY.

COURSE OF STUDY PRESCRIBED FOR GRADED AND COMMON SCHOOLS.

The course of study prescribed for Graded and Common Schools embraces the following subjects:—

1. Reading.—From Primer to Fifth Reader, inclusive. Special attention should be given to correct pronunciation, distinct articulation, and proper expression.

Declamation of selections from prose and poetry committed to memory tends to awaken a taste for good language, as well as aids in the development of a natural and easy delivery.

2. Writing.—The systems of penmanship authorised are Gage's copy-books, and series of vertical writing books, and Payson, Dunton, and Scribner's series. If the teacher prefer, he can use plain copy-books, setting the headlines.

Particular attention should be given to the proper manner of holding the pen, and correct position at the desk.

3. Spelling.—Gage's Speller is the authorized text-book. It should be used by all pupils in the Third, Fourth, and Fifth Readers.

Instruction should be both oral and written.

Dictation should commence with the ability of the child to write legibly, and should continue through the entire course.

4. Written Arithmetic.—Principles and methods should be thoroughly explained.

After accuracy in work, quickness in calculation is most desirable. To attain this, frequent practice in the simple rules is essential.

Practical examples—those that the pupil is liable to meet in everyday life—should be given frequently.

5. Mental Arithmetic.—Instruction should begin with questions in the simple rules, and should expand according to advancement.

In teaching this branch, the chief object aimed at should be to impress firmly on the mind the facts and processes of arithmetic.

6. Geography.—Thorough knowledge of the terms used and explanations given in introductory chapter of text-book is essential.

The wall maps should be used freely. A globe should be used in teaching the shape of the earth, its motions, the seasons, &c.

Map drawing, or the sketching of maps from memory, will be found to be of great value in impressing upon the mind physical geography.

7. English Grammar.—Every pupil in the Third Reader should commence this branch, although oral instruction of an elementary character may be given to advantage at an earlier period.

A good knowledge of the parts of speech and their inflections, together with the rules of syntax, is of primary importance.

Construction of sentences and correction of errors should receive early attention.

The teaching of analysis should proceed slowly and carefully—the simple sentence being thoroughly understood before the complex or the compound sentence is attempted.

Parsing should be regarded by the teacher as a test of thorough knowledge of the accidents and rules of grammar.

8. English History.—Pupils in the Fourth Reader should be required to commence this subject. Prescribed lessons should be read in class.

The points of the lesson which are required to be memorized should be written on the blackboard.

Pupils should be taught the relative importance of events; for example, that the story of Becket's parentage is not of equal historical value with the signing of Magna Charta, or the passing of the Habeas Corpus Act.

Oral reviews should be more frequent than written examinations on the subject. Geographical references should be pointed out on the map:—"Geography and chronology are the two eyes of History."

9. Canadian History.—Outlines of method given for English History are applicable to this subject.

10. Composition and Letter Writing.—The slate may be used in teaching this subject, but special care should be taken that its use does not lead the pupil into the habit of scribbling.

Reproduction as an occasional exercise may be used profitably, but the bringing out of originality is of the most permanent value.

Instruction should be given as to the proper method of opening, closing, folding, and addressing a letter.

A good knowledge of the forms used in general correspondence should be given.

11. Anatomy, Physiology, and Hygiene.—Oral primary instruction in these allied subjects may be given to the whole school, but pupils in the Fourth and Fifth Readers should be required to use the text-book.

The teaching of Physiology and Hygiene affords the teacher the opportunity of imparting practical instruction on many points of vital consequence to the pupil.

In giving instruction in Hygiene, the branch subject of Temperance, with reference to the evil effects of stimulants and narcotics on the human system, should not be overlooked.

In addition to the above, the following subjects may be taught:—Agriculture, Book-keeping, Mensuration, Geometry, Drawing, Algebra, Temperance, Music, Needlework, Calisthenics.

NOTE.—Trustees may require that Temperance be taught in their school or schools as a separate subject from Physiology and Hygiene, provided an authorized text-book is used.
